4. In all cases of mistaken identity of an accused player, team official or administrator caused as a result of a team list error or other irregularities, the responsible team, club, district or league, shall properly identify the offending party involved.
5. Affiliated District Associations, Leagues-in-Membership and Clubs shall ensure that their disciplinary rules, regulations, policies and procedures are consistent with those of the Association.
6. Failure to observe timelines defined in the Rules and Regulations of the Association may render any disciplinary action taken after the expiration of the time, null and void in the event of appeal.
7. A member is accused of misconduct when they are reported in accordance with Part 5, Breaches of the Laws of the Game and/or paragraph “a”, clauses ii) through viii), Rule 11 – Discipline.
8. The accused shall be notified in writing, when the report alleging their misconduct is being heard, except where hearings are held in accordance with a published schedule.
9. Accused parties have the right to appear at a hearing at their own expense.
10. A game official must attend a Discipline Hearing if required to do so, by the organization adjudicating the case.
11. In all cases where a person has been charged in a criminal court with offenses of moral turpitude, the accused shall be suspended from all soccer activity until the case has been concluded in the criminal courts. The Association shall decide if further proceedings are warranted pursuant to the published Rules and Regulations of the CSA.
12. In the event that criminal charges are laid as a result of any incident that occurred in a game, the case should proceed, unless the accused requests a postponement of the hearing in accordance with the published policy. The results of the criminal case shall not influence the hearing of the case. Requests for postponement under these circumstances shall be granted however the accused shall remain suspended until their case is dealt with the Discipline Hearing Committee.
13. Any accused player who is less than 18 years of age must be accompanied by an adviser, in accordance with the Association’s policy Part 7, Hearing Procedures, failing which the hearing will not proceed and the accused person shall be suspended, pending a subsequent hearing.
14. At a Discipline Hearing, each party required to attend may have no more than two observers attend the hearing unless otherwise requested by a Discipline Committee.

Rights and Responsibilities cont'd

15. A person present at a Discipline Hearing in the capacity as an advisor, observer or Club or District Representative may not act as a witness at such hearing unless by specific permission of the adjudicating committee.
16. If an individual has sat out the required automatic game suspension and the committee is unable to hear the case before the next scheduled league or cup match, a player is eligible to play until the player attends a scheduled hearing.
17. All parties affected by a discipline decision have the right to receive a written copy of the decision and also, the specific Rights of Appeal information, including:

 - d) The criteria for the specific grounds for appeal
 - e) Method of notification; must be in writing and may be submitted by mail or facsimile.
Fee for an appeal filed by facsimile must be remitted to the Association within the prescribed timeline
18. The timelines for appealing a decision shall only go into effect after the affected party has received a written copy of the decision and the Right of Appeal information.
19. A discipline decision shall remain in effect pending the result of the appeal pursuant to Rule 13-Appeals
20. Discipline Committees have a responsibility to investigate any formal, written complaint brought to their attention by the Association, their governing body, a member district, league-in membership or club.

PART 5 Breaches of the Laws of the Game

The referee must report to the appropriate authority any misconduct or misdemeanor on the part of spectators, team officials, players, named substitutes or other persons which take place either on the field of play or in its vicinity at anytime prior to, during or after the match in question so that appropriate action can be taken by the authority concerned.

1. It is understood that any registered player or team official who is sent from the field of play or reported for misconduct, shall automatically be suspended from participating in the following league match, league cup or Provincial Cup match of their team.
Interpretation: The next game whether league or cup game, whichever comes first.
 - a) The rules regarding discipline do not differentiate between games that are completed or abandoned for any reason. Therefore, the penalty for being cautioned or expelled from a game remains the same regardless of the situation surrounding the games outcome.
 - b) Suspensions shall be served for a continuous period, or for consecutive games, except where there is a break in the competition, in which case the suspension may be:
 - i) Continued accordingly
 - ii) Continued during 'the active season'
 - c) Players or team officials shall not participate in any sanctioned soccer activity while under suspension which includes:
 - i) Acting as a game official;
 - ii) Coaching in any way, either verbally or by hand signals or assisting the team in any way;
 - iii) Shall not be in match strip while standing with team members during any match.
 - iv) Shall not participate in any exhibition match or tournament without the written permission of the discipline committee that rendered the decision.
2. The suspension/s may carryover into any sanctioned activity, including tournament and exhibition matches, but shall not constitute the serving of the suspension/s.
3. Breaching the suspension shall result in a further suspension as determined by a discipline committee of the Association, District, League- in- Membership or Inter-district league.
4. Individuals having served their one game suspension, shall be eligible to play or act as team officials until their case is dealt with, unless otherwise advised or indicated in these guidelines pursuant to Rule 11 paragraph "m" iii).
5. A Discipline Hearing Committee may:
 - a) Pursuant to Rule 11, paragraph "b", a Discipline Committee may reprimand, suspend, fine and/or bond (with or without suspension) with the exception; any player under the age of 18 at the time of registration, may not be assessed a fine.
 - b) May set timelines for payment of fines or bonds, and may set further terms of punishment for non-compliance.

PART 6 Automatic Game Suspension

1. A player or team official sent from the field of play for misconduct or who engages in conduct for which the penalty under FIFA Laws of the Game would be expulsion from the field or game, shall be suspended without hearing and without appeal, from the following League or Cup game.  The player or team official, having served the one game suspension shall be eligible to resume play, coach, manage or officiate. The one game suspension shall be carried from one season to the next if not served prior to the completion of the season in which it was issued.

2. A player or team official who accumulates three (3) official cautions (Yellow cards) within a period of one playing season shall be automatically suspended without hearing and without appeal from the player's following League or Cup game. After having served the one game suspension, the player shall be eligible to resume play unless notified that further disciplinary action is being considered. The one game suspension shall be carried from one season to the next if not served prior to the completion of the season in which it was accumulated.

3. For provincial cup play, a senior player who accumulates two (2) cautions, yellow cards, or, a youth player who accumulates three (3) cautions during provincial cup play, shall automatically be suspended without hearing and without appeal from the player's next provincial cup game. Provincial Cup for youth teams is defined as all "A" Cup competition and "B" Cup competition beyond district qualification (inter-district), (see Rule 25 - Rules for Provincial Cup Play -Youth). Provincial Cup for senior teams is defined as provincial cup play beyond league qualification (see Rule 27 - Senior Cup Competition Rules.)

 Interpretation: The very next game whether league or cup competition.

PART 7 Discipline Hearing Procedures

The following procedures are to be used by Discipline Committees within the jurisdiction of the Association and should be the operating guidelines for hearing discipline cases. Rule 11 – Discipline, paragraph “q” provides for the minimum requirements for discipline committees. The procedures are consistent with the CSA Discipline Rule 12, paragraph “d” x).

Section A Formal Hearing Guidelines

1. A Discipline Committee must be comprised of three members, one of whom shall act as a recording secretary, unless, by mutual consent, the accused has signed a waiver pursuant to Rule 11, paragraph “q” iv).
2. A team official may represent players, however, if the player is less than eighteen years of age they must be accompanied by an adult. The individual representing the player should be given the opportunity to speak on behalf of the individual.
3. The accused and their representative shall be present, or the hearing shall not proceed.
 - a) Failure by any person to attend without valid reasons a regularly scheduled discipline hearing or after having been given notice to do so shall result in suspension of the accused. The suspension shall continue until the accused requests and attends another hearing.
4. Players, team officials charged with an offence must have the opportunity to respond to the charges either:
 - a) in person.
 - b) in writing (permission may be granted if the individual is unable to appear and has made a written request for such consideration).
5. The Chairperson shall read the report and state the charge or at the discretion of the committee, may allow the accused to read the report.
 - a) if the individual is unable to appear, a copy of the report should be mailed to the accused with a covering letter advising the date their reply is expected.
 - b) match reports, which may accompany a referee’s report, do not have to be copied and given to the individual.
6. The individual should be given the opportunity to answer to the charges as described in the report. Questions and/or clarification of the respondent's statement should be asked after the individual has had an opportunity to reply.
7. The Recording Secretary must record pertinent information for the record, in particular, any serious discrepancy that may exist between the game official’s report and the individual's responses
8. After questioning the individual, ask them if they have anything further they wish to add to their statement before a decision is made. Request the individual to withdraw while the committee discusses the case and makes a decision.
9. The Discipline Hearing Committee shall consider the report and further evidence provided and shall decide on the case.

Discipline Hearing Procedures cont'd

10. Call the individual back in and advise them of the committee's decision.
 - a) the accused shall be given a written record of the committee's decision
 - b) if the accused disputes the decision, advise them they have the right of appeal
 - c) appeal procedures must be outlined
 - d) inform the accused, if an appeal is considered, they are required to serve any assessed suspensions while the appeal process is pending.
Suspensions must be served as assessed unless given leave by the Provincial Board
11. Decisions should be made based on the referee's report and information presented by the individual at the hearing.
12. You have the right to withhold the decision at the end of the hearing, however the individual should be advised of the reason i.e. an extremely serious offence and the committee wishes to deliberate further.
 - a) The accused shall be permitted to participate in their next league or cup match until a decision is made, provided the automatic game suspension has been served, excepting anyone accused of game official assault, threatening a game official or harassment of a game official.
 - b) In the event a decision is withheld, the committee upon rendering a decision shall contact the accused and team official and inform them of the committee's decision. The accused shall be notified in writing of the result of the hearing in accordance with Rule 11, paragraph 'p'.
13. Failure of the accused, without due cause, to remain at a discipline hearing shall be dealt with as follows:
 - a) an accused individual who refuses to participate in a Discipline Hearing, or who walks out of a hearing, thus preventing a Discipline Committee from rendering a decisions on the case, shall stand suspended until such time they make a written request for another hearing and appear at a scheduled subsequent hearing.
 - b) notwithstanding, clause 'a', if a Discipline Committee determines that it has obtained sufficient evidence, prior to the walkout, to make a decision in the normal manner, it shall render its decision.
14. Members of Discipline Committees should appear impartial at all times. A structured formal process tends to impart this image.
15. Familiarity with players and officials must be discouraged, as it tends to detract from the process of a formal hearing.
16. If an individual has sat out the required automatic game suspension and the committee is unable to hear the case before the next scheduled league or cup match, a player is eligible to play until the player attends a scheduled hearing.

Appendix B: Discipline Committee Report Form (Optional)

Note:

The date of the offence, date of hearing and the three discipline committee's names should be recorded on the report form. In the event of an appeal, this information may be the determining factor if leave for appeal is granted.

Discipline Hearing Procedures cont'd

Section B Mail-In Hearing Procedures

The following procedures may be used as the operating guidelines for reviewing or hearing discipline cases that require the use of a mail-in system. Hearing guidelines are fully documented under the formal hearing procedures, Section A, The District, League-in-Membership or Inter-district league Discipline Committee, must approve a request for a mail-in review.

1. Players or team officials charged with an offence must have the opportunity to respond to the charges and shall be:
 - a) Sent a copy of the details of the charges
 - b) Allowed sufficient time to respond to the charges in writing
 - c) Allowed the opportunity to answer to the charges as described in the report
 - d) Advised the date their reply is expected
2. Record pertinent information in the record, in particular, any serious discrepancy that may exist between the game officials' report and the individual's responses. If a serious discrepancy exists, it may be necessary to convene a formal hearing.
3. A committee comprised of three members, none of whom may be associated with the accused, must review all pertinent information including the accused written response.
4. The individual must be advised in writing the decision of the committee. The decision may be communicated verbally to expedite matters, however, a written confirmation should be sent out within 48 hours. The appeal procedures should be outlined in the written notification of the committee's decision.
5. Once the individual has served the required automatic game suspension, they are eligible to play until the discipline committee has rendered a decision.
6. If the individual fails to respond to the charges by the date specified in your original notification they;
 - a) shall be suspended until the reply is received.
 - b) a notice of Indefinite Suspension shall be mailed to the accused

Mail-in procedures shall not be permitted for anyone accused of Deliberate Physical Contact or Violent Misconduct towards game officials. The Association shall appoint a committee to oversee hearing proceedings.

PART 8 Right to Waive

The CSA Rule 12 – Discipline permits, with mutual consent of the accused and a Discipline Hearing Committee, waiving the Rules & Regulations governing Hearings, Timelines and Notices. In order to be consistent with the CSA, the Association’s Rules & Regulations include the waiver clause in Rule 11-Discipline, Paragraph “q” iv).

Where hearing schedules are published in advance, timeline and notification requirements are waived and mutual consent is not required. Signed waivers are required in all instances of a Discipline Committee comprised of less than three members.

Criteria

1. The right to waive should only be considered if a situation arises that is unforeseen and the hearing cannot be rescheduled within the required timelines.
2. When a hearing has been scheduled and one member of the Discipline Committee is unable to attend or is detained, the option to waive may only be considered under the following criteria:
 - a) The offence is not of a serious nature
 - b) The adult representative for a registered youth age player agrees to sign the waiver
3. If the offence is of a serious nature or the offender has been subject to disciplinary action for prior offences, the right to waive should not be considered. The hearing should be adjourned and rescheduled at the earliest possible date. Pursuant to Rule 11-Discipline, paragraph “m” iii), the player’s rights are temporarily reinstated until a hearing is convened.
4. If the accused is unable to appear for valid reason, a Discipline Committee may offer the accused the option to respond in writing and waive the right to appear and offer a defense when the case is heard.
5. Waivers will not be considered if the offence is directed towards a game official.

Appendix A: Waiver Form (Mandatory)

PART 9 Request for Postponing a Hearing

Any accused party required to attend a hearing may request one postponement for a scheduled or published hearing.

1. The Discipline Committee in jurisdiction may grant postponement of the hearing, on terms published in advance of the hearing. Where district associations, leagues-in-membership or inter-district leagues, do not have published terms, the following terms shall be met:
 - a) The accused must make submission no later than seven days prior to the date of that hearing
 - b) The accused shall state the reason for requesting the postponement.
 - c) The hearing shall be rescheduled within 15 working days of the alleged incident.
2. Governing jurisdictions may establish a fee schedule; however, any such fee shall be included in the enabling authority's fee schedule.
3. If the Request for Postponement is denied, the fee shall be refunded.
4. An accused party making submission to postpone a hearing is required to serve any required automatic game suspension and shall remain suspended until the Discipline Committee deals with the case. If a Discipline Committee is not able to reschedule the hearing within the required 15 working days, the accused shall be eligible to participate in soccer activities provided the required automatic suspension has been served.
5. Should the hearing be postponed by the Discipline Committee and the accused was prepared to appear, the hearing shall be rescheduled and the following terms shall be met:
 - a) The accused party shall not be assessed a fee
 - b) The accused party shall be eligible to participate in soccer activities once the required automatic game suspension has been served, with the exception, of any individual accused of Assault of a Game Official.

PART 10 Indefinite Suspension

Failure by any person to attend, without valid reason, a Discipline Hearing after been given notice to do so in accordance with a district, league-in-membership or inter-district leagues discipline policy, shall stand suspended and deemed to be Indefinitely Suspended.

The individual is deemed to be under Indefinite Suspension and shall be notified they may NOT participate in any soccer activities under the jurisdiction of the Association pursuant to Rule 11- Discipline, paragraph “e”. The Discipline Committee in jurisdiction shall inform the district, league or inter-district league and in addition are required to inform the team officials responsible for the team by Notice of Indefinite Suspension.

1. Failure to attend a Discipline Hearing when required to do so, shall result in the accused remaining suspended until such time the suspended party requests in writing, another hearing and appears at a subsequent hearing and may be penalized in accordance with the published rules of the governing jurisdiction.
2. Should any individual continue to participate in soccer activities after being placed on Indefinite Suspension, they shall be ordered to appear before the District, League-in-Membership or Inter-district League Discipline Committee. The Discipline Hearing Committee shall assess a suspension in accordance with the Punishment Guidelines in Part 15, Participating in Soccer Activities While Under Suspension in addition to the suspension for the original offence

3. Districts and leagues shall forward any Notice of Indefinite Suspension to the Association Discipline Committee within twenty-one days for distribution to Provincial Registrar and member organizations.

Appendix C Notice of Suspension

PART 11 Punishment Guidelines

Section A Accumulated Cautions

If a player receives two cautions in one match and consequently is expelled the cautions shall NOT become part of the caution accumulation. The two cautions automatically constitute an expulsion. If however, after receiving a caution, the player is subsequently expelled for any offence, punishable by expulsion, the first caution shall become part of the record.

a) THREE Official Cautions: Rule 11 , paragraph “i” iii)

A player who accumulates three (3) cautions (yellow cards) within a period of one playing season shall be automatically suspended without hearing and without appeal from the player's following league or cup game, whichever comes first. After having served the (1) one game suspension, the player shall be eligible to resume play unless notified that further disciplinary action is being applied. The (1) one game suspension shall be carried from one season to the next if not served prior to the completion of the season in which it was accumulated.

b) FIVE Official Cautions

Having accumulated the cautions as per paragraphs “i” iii), Rule 11, players receiving a further two (2) cautions (yellow cards) in the current season shall be required to appear before a Discipline Committee and shall be assessed a (1) one game suspension which must be served in the player’s following league or cup game, whichever comes first. The (1) one game suspension shall be carried from one season from one season to the next if not served prior to the completion of the season in which it was accumulated.

c) SIX Official Cautions

Having accumulated the cautions as per paragraph “a” and “b”, players receiving a further single caution (yellow card) in the current season shall be required to appear before a Discipline Committee and shall be assessed a (2) two game suspension which must be served in the player’s following league or cup game, whichever comes first. The (2) two game suspension shall be carried from one season from one season to the next if not served prior to the completion of the season in which it was accumulated.

d) SEVEN Official Cautions

Having accumulated the cautions as per paragraph “a” “b” and “c”, players receiving a further single caution (yellow card) in the current season shall be required to appear before a Discipline Committee and shall be assessed a (5) five game or 30 Day suspension which must be served in the player’s following league or cup games, whichever comes first. The game suspension shall be carried from one season from one season to the next if not served prior to the completion of the season in which it was accumulated.

Notwithstanding, paragraphs “a through d”, where a player is not a registered youth player, leagues-in-membership may, in addition, fine registered players pursuant to the leagues discipline policies, with the exception of those players registered under youth jurisdiction.

2. Violent conduct or attempted violent conduct that includes striking, spitting or kicking

Section E Assault, Verbal or Physical of Game Officials

The Association shall retain jurisdiction in this instance for all such cases regardless of the domicile of the individual pursuant to Rule 11- Discipline, paragraph “i”, i).

The Association shall investigate all cases of misconduct involving alleged physical assault, attempted physical assault or threatening behaviour towards a game official by any person and shall be dealt with by an Association Discipline Committee. In the instance of an assault occurring outside the lower mainland, the Association may appoint a Discipline Committee to investigate and deal with the matter in the domicile of the accused. In any such instance, the appointed committee Chairperson shall handle the case in consultation with the association’s Discipline Committee.

Assault is defined as deliberate physical contact by: striking, spitting, kicking, charging, pushing, pulling or holding, or threatening in a verbal or physical manner. If a player, team official or spectator assaults any match official in the above manner, a report of the incident must be forwarded immediately to the BCSA office.

In each case of alleged game official assault by a player or team official, the accused shall be suspended from all soccer activities pending a hearing by the Association’s Discipline Committee.

Procedures and Responsibilities:

1. The game official must complete a written report and submit it to the district, league or inter-district league and the Association within 48 hours of the incident.
2. The Association shall notify the alleged offender and/or their District or League-in-Membership that the accused is immediately suspended from all soccer-related activity and shall stand suspended pending a hearing.
3. The Association, in all instances, shall notify the accused that they stand suspended and are required to attend a hearing that shall be scheduled within 21 days of the receipt of the misconduct report.

In the event that criminal charges are laid as a result of an alleged assault in a game, the case shall proceed, in accordance with the Rules and Regulations of the Association, unless the accused requests a postponement of the hearing. A request for postponement shall be granted but the accused person shall stand suspended until a Discipline Hearing Committee deals with the case. Upon hearing the case, any suspension period shall include the period during which the accused was suspended prior to the hearing.

Incidents involving spectators should be investigated by the District Association or League-in-Membership and a report must be filed with the Association so that a decision can be made as to the responsibilities of the team officials.

The Performance Bond shall be remitted to Association, District Association or League-in-Membership as directed by the Associations' committee. Performance bonds shall be refunded, without interest, at the end of the performance period, provided there are no further incidents.

PART 14 Performance Bonds and Fines

The Association's Rule 11-Discipline provides several options when assessing penalties for violations of the laws of the game, reported misconduct or breach of the rules and regulations. Offending parties, if found responsible, may be assessed a fine or ordered to post a performance bond in addition to any assessed suspension, subject to paragraph "b" vi). The CSA prohibits the imposition of fines on youth age players. Teams, team officials and organizations are not exempted from fine and performance bond policies.

Youth status shall apply to all players, under 6 through under 18, registered with the Association, on a youth application for membership. Youth players permitted to play for a senior team on permit, retain their youth registration status and are, therefore, not subject to fining penalties. A youth age player registering as a senior amateur player does not retain youth status and shall be subject to the discipline policies of the league or organization.

The Association permits the establishment of Performance Bond Policy by clubs, districts and leagues within the jurisdiction of the Association, from which fines may be deducted or performance guaranteed.

Section A Criteria for Fines and Performance Bond Policy

1. Each governing organization shall define the amounts for its own schedule of fines, bonds and penalties to be implemented for discipline cases under its jurisdiction and shall include such schedule in its published rules prior to the start of the season.
2. The nature of the offences and penalties that may be assessed shall be documented in the policy statement or rules and regulations of the governing organization.
3. An enabling authority, at their discretion, may levy a bond for a specific period of time and purpose and, may also set further set terms of punishment for non-compliance.
4. A bond may be levied with or without assessing a suspension.
5. The governing organization is not required to pay interest on any Performance Bond paid on behalf of any person, team or organization, unless so stated in its rules and regulations.
6. Clubs, districts and leagues shall ensure the information is available to affiliated teams prior to the season commencing.

Section B Implementation Guidelines for Performance Bonds

1. Where performance bonds are required to be posted by clubs or teams prior to the start of the season, it must be tendered to the district or league prior to commencement of the season.
2. If a performance bond is consumed prior to the end of the season, it shall be replaced.
3. Performance bonds or the remainder must be returned to the club or team at the end of the season or in accordance with the rules and regulations of the governing jurisdiction.

Performance Bonds and Fines cont'd

Section C Payment of Fines
